

New Interface for Locating AR Points

The screenshot displays a web browser window with the URL www.arbookfind.com/UserType.aspx. The page features a blue header with the text "AR BookFinder™". Below the header, a "Welcome" section includes a "Español" link. The main content area contains the following text: "Searching for Accelerated Reader books is fun and easy with this free online tool." and "Please tell us who you are:". A blue arrow points from the left side of the page to the registration form. The form includes four radio button options: "Student", "Parent", "Teacher", and "Librarian", followed by a "Submit" button. To the right of the text is an image of a woman and two children reading a book together. At the bottom of the page, a copyright notice reads "©2014 Renaissance Learning, Inc. All rights reserved." The browser's address bar shows several open tabs, and the Windows taskbar at the bottom indicates the time is 1:04 PM on 8/8/2015.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL www.arbookfind.com/default.aspx. The page title is "AR BookFinder™". The navigation menu includes "Home", "Español", "About Us", and "Help". The main content area is titled "Student" and features a search interface with "Quick Search", "Advanced Search", and "Collections" tabs. The "Quick Search" tab is active, showing a search input field and a "Go" button. Below the search field, there is a section for "Enter Keycode" with a "Go" button and a note: "You do not need a Keycode to search. However, if your child's teacher gave you a Keycode, enter it here to search the most relevant books for your child." To the right of the search field, there is a paragraph: "You can search for book titles based on authors, topics, or titles of books. Just type what you want to search for in the blank field above and click Go. You will then be able to sort your search results, select book titles to add to your AR BookBag, print a list of your search results, or start a new search." Below this, there is a section titled "Learn more about how to help your child develop a love for reading." with a sub-heading "A Parent's Guide to AR BookFinder" and an image of a woman and a child reading together. Further down, there is a section titled "Renaissance Learning™ reading programs now report Lexile® measures." with a sub-heading "From the Advanced Search Tab, search by ATOS book levels or Lexile® measures to find books at the right reading level." and an image of a young girl reading a book. At the bottom of the page, there is a copyright notice: "©2014 Renaissance Learning, Inc. All rights reserved. Link AR BookFinder to your school's web page." and a disclaimer: "Renaissance Learning, Inc. is a participant in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for sites to earn advertising fees by advertising and linking to amazon.com. Amazon and the Amazon logo are trademarks of Amazon.com, Inc. or its affiliates." The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows various application icons and the system clock indicating 1:06 PM on 8/8/2015.

Try the name of the book first. If you don't get the results you want, put in the author's name. Sometimes it gives a picture of the book jacket or cover. Some book jackets and covers are being changed, so also check out the author's name to make sure of your choice.
